Description

HyperX QuadCast is the ideal standalone condenser microphone for streamers who want quality sound. QuadCast includes a built-in anti-vibration shock mount, internal pop filter, and an adapter for most stands. Quickly check mic status with the LED indicator, and tap-to-mute to prevent audio accidents. Select from four polar patterns, set mic input levels with the conveniently-located gain control, and monitor sound via headphone jack. It's Discord and TeamSpeak certified and PC, PS4, and Mac compatible.
