Description

The elegant spice & coffee grinder from Rommelsbacher is perfect for grinding and crushing coffee beans, sugar, spices, herbs, nuts, grains and more. The two different work-containers allow a variable use: In the grinder cup freshly ground coffee powder is produced and dried spices like peppercorns, coriander, caraway seeds and even sugar and salt are pulverized in no time. The universal cup is perfect for chopping fresh herbs or preparing a small portion of fresh pesto. Both exchangeable containers are made of robust stainless steel and, therefore, are very easy to clean. The grinder is switched on/off by applying pressure on the cover, what makes the handling super easy. An attractive appliance - perfect for the demanding kitchen.
